Remarkable Cure of Dysentery

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all Dealers.

ARREST

Of A Man Here For Train
Jumping

Fred Barton of Akron was taken to the city lock-up from the 12:37 Pennsylvania train Tuesday morning by Officers McElroy and Taylor and a charge of train jumping placed against him. His hearing was set for Tuesday afternoon.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

As the budget commission of Knox County, Ohio, must have its work completed by the third Monday of Aug. 1914, it will be impossible for them to go into the various taxing districts to hold public meetings with the taxpayers. They have therefore decided to hold meetings at the Court House to let the taxpayer be heard on the budgets or amount of money to be levied by the different boards of the county for the year 1914.

The commission will hear the taxpayers of Berlin, Brown and Butler townships on the budgets of the trustees and board of Education and Jellaway Special District Monday Aug. 10 at 9 a. m.

Also the taxpayers of Clinton township and school budgets, Mt. Vernon corporation and school, and the budget of the Commissioners of Knox County, Aug. 10, at 2 p. m.

The hearing for the Commissioners' budget will be open for any taxpayer in the county.

ALFRED MILL, President,
WALTER M. RILEY, Secretary.

The Loyal Worker's class of the Union Grove Sunday school will give an ice cream social at the church Saturday evening, August 8.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received at the County Auditor's office, Mt. Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, until one o'clock, p. m., Monday, August 17th, 1914, for all labor necessary to construct complete the following fills:
The County Pike road at Dial's Mills College Township.
The Dike South of the Howard bridge, Howard Township.
The plans, estimates, quantities and specifications for doing this work as per county plans are on file in the office of the county auditor for the inspection of all persons interested in the same, during business hours of each day of the week, except Sunday.

All proposals must be addressed to the Board of County Commissioners of Knox County, Ohio, and indorsed with a pertinent description of the work bid on the envelope.
Each and every bid must be accompanied by a certified check, cash or bond, in the sum of 10 per cent of the bid. This is to show good faith on the part of the bidder, or bidders, and the same shall become the absolute property of the County of Knox, State of Ohio, in lieu of all damages should the successful bidder or bidders refuse to enter into a written contract with said Board of Commissioners for doing said work, within five days after the award of same, and give good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of his or their contract, or contracts, as required by law.

No proposal will be considered unless it complies with these rules and regulations. The Board of County Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the Board,
WALTER M. RILEY,
County Auditor.

Got the Best of Carlyle.

The Rev. Thomas Alexander, a Presbyterian minister, long resident in Chelsea and well known as a brother Scott, was most anxious to know Carlyle, but had no opportunity of getting an introduction to him. One day in the King's road he saw Carlyle coming in his direction and took advantage of the opportunity by going up to the sage and saying, "Thomas Carlyle, I believe?" Carlyle's reply was, "Tom Alexander, I know!" They became good friends, and later Mr. Alexander wrote to Carlyle for a subscription toward a school building fund, and Carlyle wrote back a refusal in doggerel, whereupon Mr. Alexander replied that if he did not send him $5 he would sell his poetry to a collector or publish it. The $5 was at once forthcoming.
